

Certificate in Team Leading (QCF)

Level: QCF Level 2

Overview:

This qualification is suitable for those who undertake Team Leading related activities. It provides individuals with an opportunity to demonstrate the skills and knowledge needed for successful leadership. The units encompass a range of competencies from the Management and Leadership sector. There are no formal entry requirements for this qualification.

Course Content:

The credit required for this qualification is 17 credits.

To achieve this qualification, candidates must gain 17 credits. 10 from the achievement of the three mandatory units, 5 credits from an optional group two unit and 2 credits from optional group three.