

Food & Beverage

Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Food and Beverage Service (RQF)

RQF Transition

This qualification has been transitioned from the QCF to the RQF. During transition no changes were made to the content, qualification structure or GLH.

Who is this qualification for?

This qualification is aimed at individuals employed in hospitality roles wishing to develop their knowledge and skills in food and beverage service.

How long will it take?

To complete this qualification learners should expect to undertake between 279 and 291 hours of guided learning, depending on their unit choices.

Topics covered

These include maintenance of a safe, hygienic and secure working environment, working effectively as part of a hospitality team, giving customers a positive impression of yourself and your organisation, maintaining food safety when storing, holding and serving food, providing a counter and takeaway service, serving food at the table and preparing and serving hot drinks using specialist equipment.

Assessment method

This qualification is assessed by a portfolio of evidence